EXHIBIT 64

Tuesday, September 11, 1973

Congress:

opes is

ist

of his committee

e of greater crea-than a cause of local control for community development funds, and what he considers adoquate delease

G what he term essional renaissaid be believes Songress as well on the legislation he wants,
Presidenty and Mana also spotlighted actions he opposes—red ink spending, be no monopoly any tax increase, major de-ricither ent of fease cutbacks, and husing of Avenue — and public school children to be no monopoly achieve racial balance.

Nixon said that if Congress-votes more money than be wants, be will not besitate to n which Nixon action included arize the Alaska rise the Alaska the building of anker parts, delated gas prices.

He elso said the would "conception where the said the would "conception where a time to concept all efforts to strip mining a time to oppose all efforts to vironmental prostrip the Presidency of the powers it must have to be effective—an obvious threat to velo any legislation that would restrict his war making powers

> MIXING COMPLEME with criticism; the President said Congress has made "commendable progress" in some areas this year but that action on his own initiatives "had been far less than I had en-

Nixon said "the halfile against inflation must be our first priority for the remainder of this year" and eather or Congress to hold appropriately so hillion for the fiscal year that the budget-out.

"In our joint efforts, how-ever, I continue to be add-mantly opposed to attempts at

Ali beats Norton .By Edward Schreibi AN INCHRASE Muhaminad All crashes a right to the side

their transmit reduces to strick to the I the fight on a spirit decision. See Dava Co

lat. and her attire, her neatly-groomed, stort hairstyle, her intent blue eves, her look-jou saraight-in-the-eye approach; and the somewhat guarded expression that cracks into smiles when you joke or talk or. nowine mayes prown, enter or Cook County Children's Hospital, still finds time to visit patients. Children have been the center of her life for the last 25 years.

Marilyn: A woman with nesting instincts.

Tomorrow in Tempo

- How do you design a room where pets can live comfortably with people? June Hill shows how to eater to critters.
- On the movie set Marilya Monroe was giamerous and unattainable but in real life her friends saw her longing-for a happy family life, reports Mazerice Zelstow to the fourth of a series.

Marilyn's confidante

The woman Mo

Norman Mailer, while writing his best-selling biography "Marilyn," never attempted to talk with Eunice Murray, probably the person closest to Marilyn Monroe during her last months. In this third of a series written for the Tribune, Maurice Zolotow talks to the easily accessible Mrs. Murray, who corrects some of the most shocking statements made in Mailer's book.

By Maurice Zolotow

Third of a series

I INTERVIEWED Emice Murray—and was the first writer who had done so since August, 1962—in her small college behind a larger ranch-style house at 1331 Pearl St. in Santa Monica. [Her grandson, Norman Jelirles, was present during the interview.]

She did not want me to use a tape-recorder, so I made handwritten notes which I transcribed as soon as I returned

Mrs. Murray, 71, looks about 50. She is a smiling warm and gentle person. She spoke simply and directly during the interview. Fred Gulles described her in his "Norma Jéan" biography as Marilyn's "companion-housekeeper . . . tall and matronly." Mrs. hiurray, at 5 foot 2, is hardly tall, nor is the matronly. she matronly.

"Now this man Guiles," she murmured, smiling, "he has conversations in his book between me said Marilyn when there was nobody there but the two of us and he never spoke to me and she was dead. So how could be know what we said to each other? And Mr. Mailer, who writes so beautifully I may say, he repeats some of Mr. Guiles stories, Well, Mariyn and I had gone on this trip to Mexico in Merch. And things he printed about that Moxican trip, why it just wasn't so, you know."

se'd to rson
last r the asily re of iler's

e first

· amail

1 St. in

I made eturned

warm.

ing the tall and nor is

'he has

s when r spoke we said

I viloit:

i, Marih. And

Jean"

The last days of Marilyn Monroe

"Like what?" I asked Well, like the "red material," she Guiles wrote: "They lMrs. Murray and Marilyn] found some stall, heavy, red, hand-homed material. This would make fine sola upholstery," Mrs. Murray told Marilyn. The color appealed to Marilyn and she bought 15 yards on her friend's advice. Then tables of a rough trestle variety were purchased and tagged for shipment. Mexican Indian masks of in were cheap enough to give Marilyn the satisfaction she had found at least one bargain."

MRS. MURRAY shook her head. "We did not buy any Eunice Murray: "I was her cook, decorator and secretary. I was her friend."

Associated Print photo-

red cloth in Merico. We did not have the conversation additioned cloth that he writes, or any other conversations to distinct we had. We did not buy any the month, " dis making the cort of indictions buy on Olivera Street." Fin hard his downtown Les Angeles where somet shape soft heritarisms sourcents.]

Mailer also speaks about the tin makes and additional lighting futures. Mrs. Murray says west they benefit we beautiful biner therefore tiles for the kindles and collect tables which were "lovely hand collected peasant pieces."

Mrs. Murray is irked at being described as a "boundings" er." She was not. She had been a friend of Dr. Ralph Br. Greenson, Marityn's psychoanalyst. Dr. Greenson Thought it was unwise for Marilyn to be alone during the day. He suggested to both women that Mrs. Murray spend the days with Marilyn, and their relationably began in November, 1961, when Marilyn still lived in an apartment.

"I was never Marilyn's housebeeper," Mrs. Minray says.
"I guess there's no word in the dictionary to exactly discribe what I was. I was her chauffeur, her cook, her real estable agent, her interior decorator, her social secretary." Size paused and alghed. "What I was, I was bee Irland. She trusted me absolutely. She was a very sick child at that time exhausted physically and emotionally. She should not have gone to work on that last picture." I "Something's Got To Give," which started rolling in April 1962, at 2015 Century Fox studio and was never completed.

Jet Fore, a 20th-Century Fox publicity man, fold-mis-that Bobby Kennedy had never visited the set of this moving nor had he telephoned Fox on her behalf when she has fired for chronic absence on the lot in June, 1885, as distributed reported. Gulles has then hourse contents had been the first the bought the Brentwood home. Actually, then the had helped her select the house and been her friends assured months previously.

Marilyn's new home—the first she had owned—was all the Marilyn's new home—the first she had owned, was ted at 12306 Fifth Melena Drive, one of two housestag its

.Continued on following Temps

"trim the baby nation.
"terr here altcom the Univkoms Medical al patient rea in my hands.

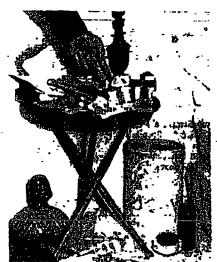

T being the adical director al" My women is that women al opportunity equally qualcredentials I in the same Whatever the want to do -the highway quablied, they considered for end on the luc t also says so not have to interng districts we so do do hard can scrub a and they are unts can she is man at County rtant post. She r Dr. Massuirector of the up and his seven-month-old for everyone. . She shows her visitors a pa- brother.

or everyone. days to do perhaps a higger, She first checks a child ad-

Drugs found at Marilya & bedside: Was Robert Kennedy behind the overdose?

M.M.'s friend

The woman Mailer forgot to talk with of a quiet little lane. It is remote and country like, yet a few of a quiet little kane. It is remote and country like, yet a few moments from the Breatwood shopping center. It is Californio Spanish style with two high waits of whitewashed brick. Marthyn paid $77,000 for R, with a $35,000 cash down payment. Dr. Greenson believed a would psychologically benefit her to be in her own bome, and that she had a powerful mesting instinct which had long been thwasted because the always lived in botela, renied houses, or houses already onned by previous wives as in Aribus Miller's case.

He felt she should mit down roots. It was his home that

He felt she should put down roots, it was his hope that Mrs Burrty, in whom the nesing and ismily instinct was strong, would strengthen this cide of Marilyn, relieving her of obsessions and guilts about her failing career and her troop—objections and gillis about her beining enter and her trou-bled marringra.

"Marilya was bursting with plans and depas about furthi-ing and deterating her house," Mrs. Murrly recalls, "She was so proud of st. Plans for making a special gessi-troum for-Carl Sandburg, whom she loved. Plans about the movies sho would make. She was getting better. Dr. Greenson once and to me. 7 don't know what you are doing, but keep on; Marilya is making real progress." São bail plans for résulting ber social life."

I asked her about the dinner party reported by Mailer.
Was Babby Hernady in the house that Saturday alght?

Poter Landard?"

"Poter Landford?"
"No."
"Pot Norcomb."
"Pot Norcomb."
"No. Absolutely not. There was nobody in the bouse that night ancept me and Marityn. The dottes were lacked. The great shut, The windows lecked. The French window is been as shut, The windows lecked. The French window in her room locked. She always closed the drapes in a room when, she went to alsep. When did Mr. Maller get the notion that the sispled the drapes shut."

I asked whether ahe how whole hove affair between Frunk Shatra and Marityn, which some writers have described at length. As far as she know and she said there was a stusting of complete conditions between the and Marityn—"the was not haying a love affair with Frunk Shatra, the she candityled him a good and hind friend. During the five ments the lived in the Breatwood house, Shaniff was there only one time."

And Boby Kennedy?

"That was the most will goody of all," Mrs. Murray said.

caty one time."

And Bobby Heanedy?

"That was the most ovil goalty of all," Mra. Murray capt.

"R is not knot that Merilya had a secret love after with Mr.

Rimoedy, Harlya opened her heart in mea that I would left you if it were so, Mr. Heanedy came to her hund maybe two or three times, that is all, if what diring the day with a group of yeaple to see the house. Marilya loved chowing oil that house. It was like it was her boby, the was no prud of it, but the didn't go sensiting around with Mr. Kennedy or hard a love affair with him."

Mailer acknowledges that he drawn mayb of the fertiles, date about the last stoo years of Marilya's life from the day is a matter of indusing fact. Heller, however, the formation of the fertiles, the many as a matter of indusing fact. Heller, however, the most believe that there was a love affair with Romany as a matter of indusing fact. Heller, however, the most believe that there was a love affair with Romany. I was a many of the fact of his work in the day of the fact of his work is the property of the fact and in the middless. The property of the last about hour nichestiles. They stored the last and the form of the matter of the days are a fact of the last about hour nichestiles. They are a love of the fact of the last about hour nichestiles. They are a love of the fact of the last about hour nichestiles. They are a love of the last and the low in the last and th

asy on the mayo

i each: lemon e wine

Je, minted

эIJ chopped. sted pine muts nder container in juice, vine-d gariff and seconds. With 1, slowly pour Add auta and conds. Empty to Cheese", a mer" published y at $3.50, is niurmation and se recipes. But a incorrect on states or page i lactory-mades a factories in saty, N. Y. is not a single y in Herbigour ne is a companony years ago

Mediterranean Lemon Cake made with yegurt and ground outs is good. It is from "The Portable Peast" 1101 Productions, $3.851. Auther is Diane D. MacMillan and the book is illustrated by Erni Young.

MEDITERRANEAN LEMON CAKE

is pound stitemed butter 1 to cups sugar

4 cads, room temperature i tablespoon graied lemon

pre) 24 cups unblenched flour
is feaspoon talt

1 leaspoon each: sods,

baking powder is pint yeguri, room temperature

25 cup finely ground note 35 cup lemon juice

Cream softened butter and I just of the sugar until light and Bully Add eggs and" and Indiy. Add eggs and letrou peel, blend thereby. Silt flour, salt, toda, and hiking powder. Add thy ingredients alternately with yeight for the peed of the pee cup sugar and lemon jules in a samespan. Heat until sugar has dissolved and print near cake while still warm. Cool in the pan.

$5 favorite

THRIPTY ONE-DISH MEAL [12 servings]

4 cups cooked rice 3 cups diced cooked pork, beef, or chicken

i con (il ounter) pena.

1 can (2) ounces]

I can is suncred tompto

I can (§ sences)

cup choped celery small octors, miqred is cup grated sharp chec

a cop graces there charp choose a literappen selli il tempono perper Combine ingradiente Turn into a 3-quart challey belding dish. Belsa 4, 550 tlegross for 19 minutes.

Mrs. Jonnie Misser Abliogh

Send year farerije recije 1: Rocije Editaj, Chinas 1840.a. Il 1007 belog pie